

March 14, 2024

To Whom It May Concern,

I am delighted to offer my highest commendation for Allan Kehler who delivered an outstanding keynote presentation during the 2024 Winter Training Institute of the American Probation and Parole Association on February 25 in Seattle, WA (USA). During the opening plenary session Mr. Kehler's captivating message not only established the perfect tone for the entire training institute but also left an indelible mark on our attendees.

His ability to inspire and encourage the audience was truly remarkable. His presentation skillfully wove together a theme of health, wellness, and resilience, creating an atmosphere of motivation and shared experiences. Witnessing Mr. Kehler touch so many individuals and uplift the overall ambiance with his insightful perspective and compelling personal story was nothing short of phenomenal.

Allan Kehler's contribution went beyond merely setting the tone; it became the heartbeat of our training institute. The positive ripple effect of his message continued throughout the event, fostering a sense of connection and empowerment among participants that extended beyond the confines of the event. I am sincerely grateful for the transparency and positive energy he brought to our training institute and witnessed a professional presenter who not only delivered a compelling and insightful message but also left a lasting impact on those fortunate enough to witness his message.

Sincerely,

Veronica Cunningham
Executive Director/CEO
American Probation and Parole Association